

WASHINGTON – Congressman John W. Olver (1st District) today announced his strong support for

"The elderly and disabled have waited long enough for a comprehensive prescription drug benefit

The Medicare Rx Benefit and Discount Act adds a new Part D in Medicare that provides voluntary

Yesterday, the Bush Administration put forth a plan that will force seniors to drop out of traditional,

"Instead of providing a prescription drug plan under Medicare, the president is using a possible pre

The Democratic prescription drug plan provides real benefits because it does not force Medicare b

"The reality is that HMOs are abandoning rural areas like western Massachusetts and less densely

Olver noted that rural elderly residents have both a higher need for, and reduced access to, prescri

"Access to affordable pharmaceutical services is vital to rural senior citizens and should be assure

###